

Spring SCBWI Saturday -- March 26, 10 a.m. – 1p.m.
Workshop: “Create Your Own Canon” with Bethany Hegedus

Arts Council of Brazos Valley, 2275 Dartmouth St., College Station, TX
$20 registration fee for SCBWI members; $22 for non-members
Soft drinks and dessert provided. Bring a sack lunch.

Spruce up your Spring productivity with hints from Bethany Hegedus on finding inspiration and help in favorite children’s books. Learn to read like a writer, as well as how to self-diagnose and strengthen problem areas in your work.

“As writers we often turn to the well-worn pages of craft books to find help when we most need it,” said Bethany. “What if we turned to our own writer canon—not a must-read list designed by someone else, but a list of kid lit we love—books we can turn to over and over again as we read like writers and perfect our picture books, novels, and articles?” She will share her conclusions with us on March 26.

Bethany’s debut novel, Between Us Baxters, was named a Best Book of 2010 by the Bank Street Awards Committee. Her new novel, Truth with a Capital T, was released in October 2010. Forthcoming is a picture book, Grandfather Gandhi. Bethany is a graduate of the Vermont College of Fine Arts and serves as office manager at the Writers’ League of Texas. Along with author Kekla Magoon, Bethany serves as co-editor to the Young Adult and Children’s Literature section of Hunger Mountain, the VCFA Journal of the Arts.
